

Mall Seek and Find on a Budget

You've saved your babysitting money for 2 months and you have $80 dollars, but you don't want to spend it all, you would like to save some. So try your best to find the best deals and save the most money.

We will divide up into 3 teams and see which team can save the most money and find the cutest and modest new outfit for their event. We would like one member of the team to try on the outfit (or pieces of the outfit) and take a picture with your cell phone, if time permits. Please record the name of the store, the item (i.e. yellow shirt or jean shorts) and the price of the item. Once you have your outfit please add up your total.

1. You turned 16 and are going on your first group date in the middle of August. You are going miniature golfing at Schells and then for some ice cream. You'll want a cute and modest pair of shorts and a top and maybe a new pair of shoes. You may also want to bring along a sweater or long sleeve top for when it gets cooler in the evening. If you have extra money maybe you would like a few cute accessories, like earrings and a necklace.

2. You're attending a tri-stake fireside followed by a semi-formal dance. You'll need a cute church appropriate outfit for the night. You might want a modest dress or a top and a skirt. And don't forget the shoes, they'll need to be church appropriate too (no flip flops or sneakers), a cute pair of dress shoes, dress sandals or dress boots. If there is money left over don't forget your accessories, they can really dress up an outfit or add some shine.

3. School just ended and now it's swimsuit season. Your body has matured over the last year and you longer fit into your suit from last year. You're heading to the beach for the day with some friends and need to find a new swimsuit. You will also need some shorts (and maybe a shirt) or a cover up and some flip flops or sandals for the board walk. If you have extra money you may also want to buy a new beach bag and a beach towel.
