This year in Primary, you've learned a song by Sally DeFord called, "If I Listen with my Heart". Can you fill in the blanks with the missing words?

If I had been a _____ child when Jesus _____ on earth, I would have liked to _____ with Him and _____ to His _____. But as I _____ the _____ I can _____ His words of _____, and if I _____ with my
_____, I _____
the Savior's _____.

Great job! If you prepare yourself for conference, and "Listen with your heart", Heavenly Father will help strengthen and bless you.

Did you know that about two months after being organized on April 6, 1830, The Church held its first general conference? It was held at the Peter Whitmer home in Fayette, Seneca County, New York with thirty people in attendance.

Conference is for YOU!

“Those who will address us have sought heaven’s help and direction as they have prepared their messages. They have been impressed concerning that which they will share with us.”

– President Thomas S. Monson, New Era, Nov. 2009, 2–3.

In order for YOU to get the most from Conference, write down one question (or more) that you would like an answer to. As the speakers share their messages, listen for specific impressions or thoughts that help answer your question(s).

I wonder....

Once conference is over, decide upon a way you can act upon that which you have heard. “In order for the messages of general conference to change our lives, we need to be willing to follow the counsel we hear. The Lord explained in a revelation to the Prophet Joseph Smith “that when ye are assembled together ye shall instruct and edify each other, that ye may know ... how to act upon the points of my law and commandment.” But knowing “how to act” isn’t enough. The Lord in the next verse said, “Ye shall bind yourselves to act in all holiness before me.” This willingness to take action on what we have learned opens the doors for marvelous blessings.” - Paul V. Johnson, “The Blessings of General Conference,” Ensign, Nov 2005, 50.

I will...

Did you know that general conference use to be over a three day period, with the annual conference always including April 6? This proved hard when April 6 fell midweek as many had to work or attend school. In April 1977, during Spencer W. Kimball's presidency, general conference was reduced to two days, Saturday and Sunday.

Messages for Me!

As you listen to conference, jot down four short messages or scriptures that made the biggest impression on you. Cut them out and post them on your mirror, bed, or dresser so you can remind yourself of these important truths.

Can you help these children get ready for Conference? Cut out each item and assemble.
