

I can share...

(Glue tab here)

One day my little sister and I were watching a movie. I was eating a snack, and my sister wanted some. Even though I share with my sister a lot and would have liked to finish my snack by myself, I decided to share with her. It gave me a good feeling. I have shared a lot with my family and have learned that it is nice to share.

My brother wanted to play with some of my toys. I didn't want to let him at first, but I learned to have fun with him. It was much more fun to play together. (Trevin, Age 7)

I'm trying to be like Jesus by sharing the gospel with my friends. I'm thankful to be a Latter-day Saint and I like to share what I know with other people. Sharing the gospel helps to build God's kingdom, and that's what Jesus did during His life.
(Gabe, Age 11)

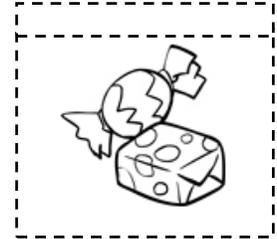

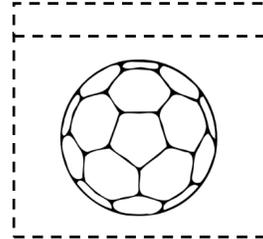

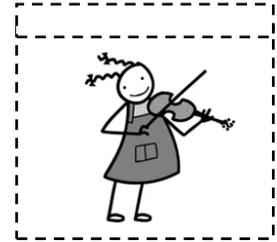

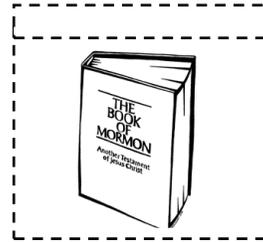

...my testimony.

I love to sing. My favorite songs are Primary songs that help me share my testimony and my love for the Savior. I sang "I Am a Child of God" in sacrament meeting when I was three years old. By sharing my talent, I feel good and help others feel the Spirit. (Tyson, Age 6)

...my talents.

Happiness often comes, however, from doing something kind or thoughtful for someone else.
