

Reporter Alice- Excuse me, young lady, I hear that (your town) has some extraordinary teenagers, could you please take a minute and let me ask you about that?

Girl 1 – Oh, hello we do have some great teenagers but I can't talk to you now my Mom has a meeting and I promised her I would hurry and get home to tend my little brother. Sorry, I'll talk to you another time.

Reporter Betsy- Hello could I please ask you a question?

Girl 2- (Phone rings and she answers it.) Oh Dad, How are you? How did your big meeting go? Were you nervous? Sure Dad, I'll be home in a few minutes. Love you. She runs out.

Reporter Alice- Man alive the teenagers in (your town) seem to be so busy. One is tending her brother the other one is chatting to her Dad. Let's try this teenager over here.

Reporter Alice- Hello. I want to ask you a question about your family.

Girl 3- Oh, my family....., hey I got to go because tonight is family home evening and I have treats. I'm gonna make my favorite cookies. She ya later.

Reporter Betsy- Oh, here's a cute girl carrying a bag. I'll ask her about the teenagers in (your town). Hey, I am wondering what you have in that bag?

Girl 4- Oh I have some clothes that I am giving away.

Reporter Betsy- Did you grow out of them?

Girl 4- No, my friend gave them to me but my Mom said they weren't very modest and I needed to give them away.

Reporter Betsy- I bet that made you angry huh?

Girl 4- I have to admit I was upset about it at first. It was an expensive outfit and it was my favorite color.

Reporter Betsy- Well, then why didn't you just wear it when your Mom wasn't around.

Girl 4- I couldn't do that. I was frustrated-but deep inside I knew my Mom was right. She has always set a good example to me in how she dresses. I didn't want to disappoint her. So I am giving these clothes away.

Reporter Alice- Wow, I am very impressed with the teenagers in (your town). They are helpful, courteous and they don't say bad things about their parents. I bet this girl can help me out and explain. Could I please talk to you?

Girl 5- Sure

Reporter Alice- I have met some very extraordinary teenagers here in (your town). Can you tell me what makes the youth in this town so amazing?

Girl 5- Yes, the answer is in this scripture. I memorized a scripture from Doctrine and Covenants 108:7

“Therefore, strengthen your brethren in all your conversation, in all your prayers, in all your exhortations, and in all your doings.”

The teenagers here in (your town) try to provide strength, enthusiasm and helpfulness to our families and neighbors.

Reporter Alice- That is impressive, it sounds like your families are one for all and all for one. Do you also pray for your families?

Girl 5- We pray together as a family and I pray for my family in my individual prayers. My Mom has been having some health issues so I have been praying for her every night.

Reporter Alice- This is the kind of town that I want to live in. I need to call my teenager, “Kim” and tell her I would like to move to (your town).

Reporter Alice- Hello Kim, I have interviewed some incredible teenagers. I want to tell you all about them. Maybe, you can become friends with them and they can teach you a scripture about praying for and strengthening others.

Reporter Alice and Reporter Betsy: Sorry, we got to go- we are so excited about what we witnessed today. See ya!
